I'm looking for a job.
This is my professional experience.

September 2011 - present

Graphic Designer // Freelance

I was fortunate enough to acquire some amazing clients to work for in addition to my job at Graphinity. These projects include logos, branding, brochures, posters and other presentation materials.

September 2011 - April 2018

Graphic Designer // Graphinity Inc.

I came in as an unpaid intern and worked my way to a full-time employee. In a smaller print shop, you learn to do a little bit of everything. I started off doing production of large format pieces and progressed to a designer's chair. I worked on a variety of projects, including catalogs, menus, mailers, invitations, newsletters, jerseys, maps, medical forms, business cards and branding.

August 2016 - June 2017

Sales Associate // Thrifty Florist

I took on a part-time job, in addition to my work at Graphinity. I worked with customers, take orders, help keep up the shop and occasionally make deliveries.

August 2011 - November 2012

Sales Associate // Ridley's Bakery

I worked at the bakery/cafe part-time while I was interning at Graphinity. My job included a mix of counter sales, food prep, cashier, making gift baskets and gift bags

Summer 2009 - 2011

Umpire // Troy Baseball Boosters

I was one of only two females to umpire in the Troy Booster Baseball league. I was voted by coaches to umpire in both the All-Star and Playoffs based on my performance in 2009 and 2010.

Hi, I'm Kate.

I'm a Graphic Designer.

I grew up outside of Detroit, which makes me a huge fan of hockey, baseball, football, craft beer, Coney Islands, classic rock and Motown music.

I work so I can travel. So far I've been to China, England, Ireland, Norway, Canada and 22 different states. I'm hoping to expand upon this list in the coming years.

I also like running, superhero movies, going to games (Red Wings and Tigers in particular), finding new places to eat, baking, dressing up and planning my next adventure.
